LODGE WILL CALL PEACE TREATY UP ON FEBRUARY 9TH HE TELLS SENATE

Republican Leader Would Get Ahead of Democrats One Day.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT
WILL BE REQUESTED

Fight for Ratification to Be Transferred to Floor of the Upper House

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Senator Lodge announced this afternoon that he will move to have the treaty of peace taken up in the senate on February 9. This is one day earlier than Senator Hitchcock had planned to take the same action.

Senator Lodge said he would ask for a suspension of the rules by unanimous consent on Feb. 9 to permit the treaty being called up with the reservation adopted by a decisive majority of the senate. Senator Lodge's move was made after he had consulted with other republican leaders. If successful, it will place ratification of the treaty squarely before the senate. It will have the solid backing of the republican majority, it is said.

Senator Hitchcock is absent at Omaha, Nebraska his home city on an errand of mixed business and politics. None of the senators present on the Democratic side made any comment on the action.

Senator Lodge maintained the treaty can only be brought before the senate again by a two-thirds vote if he does not get unanimous consent. Senator Hitchcock claims only a majority vote is necessary.

GLASS NOW FAVORS BALLOT FOR WOMEN

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Carter Glass, known as a bitter opponent of woman's suffrage, caused jubilation in suffrage circles here today by urging ratification of the Susan B. Anthony amendment by democratic legislatures which have not yet taken such action, on the ground that the democratic party cannot afford to lose the favor of women voters.

In a letter made public today advising the legislature of his home state, Virginia, to ratify the amendment, he declared that the states in which women now have the ballot will be the pivotal ones in the next election.

REACH AGREEMENT ON RAILROAD BILL

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—A final agreement on railroad legislation is expected to be reached tomorrow by the senate and house conferees, Senator Cummins, chairman of the senate interstate commerce committee, said today. The situation was one, Mr. Cummins added, which afforded hope that a railroad bill satisfactory to both houses would be reported before the end of the week. Adoption of the conference report before the end of the week was a possibility, Senator Cummins said.

J. E. PENNEY BUYS THE MORRIS HOTEL

The Morris hotel, one of the landmarks in Birmingham, has been sold by M. L. Grier, of Montgomery, to J. E. Penney, formerly of Albany, now a resident of the Magic City. The consideration is said to have been $300,000. The hotel has been leased to T. L. Hobart, well known here, for a term of years at a rental reported to be $25,000 a year.

GENERAL STRIKE OF RAILWAY MEN IS FEARED BY CHIEFS

(International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—A general strike of railroad employees without authority of their leaders is feared by railroad brotherhood chieftains if Director General Hines refuses to grant increased wages to railroad workers when he meets with their representatives tomorrow.

This fear was expressed today by the leaders gathering here, although they were reluctant to discuss the question of a strike as the leaders do not desire such action.

The brotherhood leaders today received informal information that Director General Hines is prepared to grant slight increases to the maintenance of way employees, the shop laborers, dining car conductors and railroad clerks.

HARTSELLE BUYS BUILDING FOR CITY

HARTSELLE, Ala., Feb. 2. (Special)—One of the most important real estate deals that has been made at Hartselle recently was the sale by J. E. Freeman, for the First National Bank, to J. L. Day, as Mayor for the City of Hartselle, the First National Bank building and the two-story brick store building adjoining it, which was owned by the bank, for $20,000. It is understood the City will use the most of these buildings for a City Hall and for the use of the new court, which has been given to Hartselle by a recent act of the legislature.

The First National Bank has recently purchased a more convenient lot for the sum of $15,000.00, on which it will erect a modern two-story bank building this summer. It is understood that the bank made a profit of $7,500.00 on the two buildings above book value.

This is only indicative of the fast increase in the value of real estate in Hartselle which is caused by the fact that it is one of the best business towns in North Alabama.

JOHN S. NEWBERRY FLOORED BY "FLU;" TRIAL UNDER WAY

(International News Service.)
GRAND RAPIDS, Feb. 2.—The flu made fresh inroads today among the defendants in the Newberry trial. John S. Newberry, brother of the senator, was stricken while on a week-end visit to his Detroit home and will not be able to return for several days. Five others were reported today as suffering from the flu.

The government's opening statement in the trial of Senator Newberry and 123 of his political supporters charged with fraud in the senatorial campaign of 1918 will be delivered in the United States district court here this afternoon by assistant attorney general Frank Day. A vast army of witnesses, estimated at from 500 to 700, will support the contention made by the government.

FIRST EDITION OF AMALGAMATED N. Y. SUN AND HERALD WILL BE PUT TO BED BY JOHN N. HUMES

John N. Humes, a nephew of the late Capt. Milton Humes, of Huntsville, and a newspaper man of wide distinction, will have the honor of superintending the publication of the first issue of the Sun and New York Herald, following the purchase of the Herald from the Bennett interests by Munsey and its amalgamation with the Sun. Information to this effect was received here today by W. R. Shelton, a close friend of Mr. Humes, in a letter from Paul Drane, also prominent in Gotham newspaper circles.

Mr. Drane in his letter spoke of a closing down of the Herald office and the removal of its effects from Herald Square to Chambers Street

ROBERT DOWNING AS "JOE MORGAN" A CONVINCING LESSON

One of the few remaining grand old actors of past generations appeared at the Masonic Theatre Saturday night, when Robert Downing, portrayed "Joe Morgan" in "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." To those who remember Mr. Downing in the days when he gave impersonations in classical drama and there were none better, for that matter, were impressed that he is the best now living of the great ones of the American stage. Old play-goers will recall the superb acting of Mr. Downing when he supported Booth, Barrett, Feeter, Jefferson, Madam Janauschek, Maggie Mitchell, Mary Anderson and many others "who strut and frets his hour upon the stage."

His "Joe Morgan" was given Saturday night only as the artist may, with that detail and finish, that perfectness of simulation of the saloon bum, so well known to those who have lived with him and to those who know. Mr. Downing held up the mirror, true to life, of the poor victim of intemperance with its rags and degradation, with its maudlin mumbblings, with a fidelity only too true. The play has undergone some slight changes since its first productions, but Mr. Downing has lost nothing in ability—the splendid voice, perfect enunciation, magnetic delivery and masterful physique—all have been preserved that he might deliver this sermon to the younger generations that they might profit thereby and be spared and spare others the pain, mortification and ruin that has been the lot of millions who have gone to almshouses, disgrace and death through indulgence in alcohol.

Mr. Downing is an ordained minister, a member of the Christian church. After his retirement from the stage he occupied a pulpit at Newport, L. I., for ten years and gave his best to the work of the Master, returning to the stage in order that he might continue the work he had undertaken for uplifting the people of the world. He is, and has been, the earner in his profession of thousands of dollars per season and when it is considered that he received the munificent sum of $600 per annum as a pastor, the conclusion is reached that he is a deadly earnest to aid in making the world better to live in. He is only on the stage now that the message of Christ and Him Crucified may be given through a new medium and in an effort to bring the world's people to prepare themselves for the future life. It has been suggested that he take his "Joe Morgan" to England, now that the work has been begun there of burying "John Barleycorn," and this lesson of the fall and rise of "Joe Morgan" when the awful habit of intemperance is broken cannot but have a decided effect upon the earlier bringing to pass of the consuming and destructive habit of liquor drinking in Europe.

Mr. Downing is now 62 years of age. (Continued on page three.)

LARGE NUMBER OF DOGS COMPETE IN ALL-AGE EVENT IN ALA. FIELD TRIALS

Weather is Ideal for Running Today, Sportsmen Declared This Morning.

FOX HUNT IS FEATURE OF TUESDAY'S PROGRAM

Ty Cobb Expected Late Today or Tonight for Events of Tuesday

A large number of dogs, with the best weather conditions in the past several years of the club, left this morning for the Wheeler plantation for participation in the All-Age, the first event of the program of the Alabama Field Trials club. Sixteen entries were in the drawing at the Hilda hotel last night. The dogs are being handled by what is probably the greatest galaxy of all-star handlers, ever attending a meet of the state club. Several automobiles carried the sportsmen to the Wheeler home this morning, while the dogs were taken out on a truck. The party will return late this afternoon.

The derby will be run Tuesday and the free-for-all Wednesday. Many entries have been made in both events and the competition is keen. A fox hunt near the summer home of D. S. Echols, vice president of the club, on Trinity mountain, will be a feature of Tuesday's program.

Captain Tyrus Raymond Cobb, world's greatest baseball player, has made hotel reservations here and is expected to arrive this afternoon or tonight with an entry for the final events of the program—the derby and free-for-all.

The weather today was declared by sportsmen to be ideal for the best efforts by the dogs. A cool breeze and overcast sky form the best combination possible, they said.

Club headquarters are at the Hilda hotel, while most of the dogs are quartered in the Echols garage. Mr. Echols, one of the club's vice presidents, is chairman of local arrangements for the trials and entertainment of the prominent visitors.

ALLIES WILL TRY GERMAN CULPRITS

PARIS, Feb. 2.—The suggestion of the German government that the trial of German officials accused of war crimes be conducted before German courts, with the allies prosecuting, was rejected by the council of ambassadors today.

The ambassadors approved the draft of a reply to the recent German note regarding war criminals and also approved a list of names of Germans who will be demanded for trial. The list will be formally handed to the Germans either tomorrow or Wednesday.

The ambassadors did not discuss the Fiume question.

BRIDGE WILL BRING MUCH MORE COTTON TO LOCAL MARKET

A highway bridge across the Tennessee river here would bring between 6,000 and 7,000 bales of cotton to local markets is the belief of T. M. Jones, of the Jones Cotton company, who declared:

"In relation to the proposed highway bridge across the Tennessee river at this point, I beg to say that the completion of this bridge will have a great effect on the movement of cotton locally. At present there is practically no cotton received here by wagon from points as far north as Athens. With the bridge completed, however, and roads improved, there would come to this market from that territory between 6000 and 7000 bales annually, that would cross the bridge."

"I firmly believe the promotion of this bridge is a proposition of the highest class and merit and the most important one that has ever come before the people of this territory."

NEGRO ARRESTED

MRS. POSEY LIVINGSTON IS MOTHER TWO SETS TRIPLETS

By J. E. BLAIR.
According to William Royer, of Austinville, a member of whose family has received a letter from friends of Mr. and Mrs. Posey Livingston, who now live out on the Hartselle-Moulton pike, one of the little boy triplets, born here 14 months ago is not living, but his other two brothers are well and doing fine.

Also according to this letter the second set of boy triplets, recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Livingston, are thriving and vigorous, with every indication that they will all grow to manhood. The news of the death of one of the famous boy triplets born on Third avenue, South Albany, last winter will be received with a pang of regret as the whole community fondly hoped to see all three boys gain manhood's estate some fine day. The portraits of these boys appeared in the Daily a few months after their birth and attracted great interest and much favorable comment. The eldest and largest of the boys was named Ewell.

The names of the newest triplets of Mr. and Mrs. Livingston have not yet been given out. In fact if they have been named at all, the mother has made much better progress than she did in naming her first triplets. At the time of their birth, R. H. Wolcott wrote a letter to President Woodrow Wilson, and suggested that in view of the goodly appearance of the boys, and their number, that the President suggest names for them. Soon after a reply was received congratulating the parents on their first children, but the President declined to recom-

SOUTHERN HOGS OF POOR QUALITY IS CAUSE LOW PRICES

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Poor quality rather than discrimination is responsible for low prices farmers receive for their hogs in a certain section of the south, the federal trade commission declared today in a report sent to the senate.

The report was in compliance with a resolution introduced by Senator Harris, of Georgia, directing the federal trade commission to investigate alleged discriminations.

The report declares: "The quality of the product appears to be the chief cause for the lower prices paid for hogs in the specified regions of Florida, Georgia and Alabama." A soft and oily quality of pork products from the states mentioned makes it less valuable, the report states.

MORGAN COUNTY'S QUOTA

Chairman Payne Makes Public
the List of Workers in Various Precincts

The campaign to raise Morgan county's quota of the fund for the relief of the Near East was opened today when J. O. Arroll, a speaker of unusual ability and a man thoroughly familiar with conditions in Armenia and other suffering countries of Asia Minor, spoke at the shop gates at noon. Mr. Arroll will speak tonight at the Princess Theatre, and indications are that he will be heard by a large audience.

Morgan county's quota in the Near East drive, as announced today by E. C. Payne, county chairman, is the saving of 600 lives, at a cost of five dollars each. Mr. Payne also made public the names of the campaign workers in the various precincts of the county.

The campaign which begun today will continue for three weeks. (Continued on page five)

GRONNA TAKES A SHOT AT HOOVER

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Provisions of the food control act have been used to advance the candidacy of Herbert Hoover for the presidential nomination, Senator Gronna, chairman of the senate agricultural committee, charged on the floor of the senate today. Acreage devoted to the production of grain has decreased 40 per cent this year Senator Gronna declared.

"The wheat farmers of this country have lost $2,000,000,000 because of regulations. I am going to introduce a bill to repeal the law fixing wheat prices," Mr. Gronna said. "I believe the action of wheat administrator Barnes is part of the plan to place Herbert Hoover before the women of this country as one who wishes to reduce the price of bread."

Get Morgan County Out of the MudVOTE FOR THE GOOD ROADS BOND ISSUE*MORGAN COUNTY ASKED TO SAVE SIX HUNDRED LIVES

The drive for funds with which to relieve the sufferings of the people of the Near East, those unfortunates who are facing actual starvation, with all its horrors, will open in Morgan county today and continue for three weeks. This county, one of the most prosperous in the entire South, one that knows nothing of actual want, is being asked to save six hundred lives at a cost of five dollars each, and to night at the Princess theatre Mr. Arroll, a speaker who knows his subject, will tell of the distress of the unfortunates who people Asia Minor. The message that Mr. Arroll brings is one that cannot be allowed to go unheeded, for he has lived among the Armenians, has witnessed with his own eyes the atrocities of the Turks and Kurds, and knows the plight of these starving millions. His story is not an exaggerated one, and there is but little doubt but that it will touch the hearts of all who hear him.

What Morgan county is asked to do is not much, in dollars and cents, and it can be safely forecast that a citizenship that never turns a deaf ear to the cries of the down-trodden will rise to the occasion once more and that the county will go "over the top."

JACK DEMPSEY IS HARDLY A "SLACKER"

Just at present, the sporting public is devoting much of its attention to the charge that Jack Dempsey, the heavy-weight champion, is a "slacker." Of course, it doesn't make a very much difference whether the battler really shouldered a gun, as on man more or less would not have turned the tide of victory. There is a little question of patriotism involved, however, that makes the issue something of a live one, especially as the lovers of a good fistic scrap are to be asked to pay the freight in the way of box office receipts when the title-holder meets Georges Carpentier.

From the records of the case and from the evidence submitted by Jack himself, it is apparent that the big fighter really did quite a "bit" for his country. He gave exhibition boxing bouts that netted something over $100,000 and turned the money over to the Red Cross. Also, he did a limited amount of service in the ship yards. These activities certainly relieve Dempsey of the stigma that attaches to the deliberate draft dodger, and "pass the buck" to the exemption board. If Dempsey, who had dependents, was not properly classified, then there is someone other than himself to blame. He didn't pass on his own qualifications as a soldier, and he didn't turn a hard and stony heart to his country. Nor will it be charged that he was afraid to fight. Like a good many other American citizens he submitted cheerfully to the selective service regulations, and took what was handed to him. By volunteering he could have become a hero, as Carpentier is. By failing to do so, he forfeited only the glory. He violated no law. In practical effect he lived up to the spirit of the selective draft, which was given deliberate preferment over the old volunteer system by the military leaders of the nation.

JUST IN PASSINGMUST EQUAL THE GIRLS

"The leap year dance given by the young ladies of Albany and Decatur was such a decided success, that it is up to the men to equal their achievement when they give a return dance on February 23," said Jeff Eyster today. "And, believe me, we hope to rise to the occasion," he continued. "The invitations will be mailed out early and the guest list will include all members of the dancing sets of Huntsville, Hartselle, Athens, Courtland, the Tri-Cities as well as other cities of this section. We intend to have a record breaker, for it is up to us not to be outdone."

A SWEET GRAPE FRUIT

"I mail you a grapefruit to try. Tell me what you think of it," writes George F. Ensey, of Tropic, Fla. And Mr. Ensey was as good as his word, for the fruit came in the same mail with his letter. It is advertised in today's Daily as a grape fruit that can be eaten without sugar, and the sample shows that the advertisement is justified. The specimen sent to the Daily editor was sampled by various members of the office force, and they all pronounced it excellent. It is not so sweet as an orange, but is far less sour than the ordinary grapefruit. It requires no sugar, and should for this reason soon become an enemy of the sugar trust.

ACTOR STILL PREACHES

"There is entirely too much Church-anity and too little Christianity," said Rev. Robert Downing, who plays the leading part in "Ten Night in a Bar Room."

"I was recently invited into the kind of mess that churchanity makes. A prominent churchman came to me with in offer of a pastorate of a large sized church as to building at least and as to salary I was offered $5,000 year and parsonage. I asked the man 'Why is it you want a pastor? Why have you not got one? I venture your congregation is all cut up into hostile camps until there is nothing doing in that church.' When he admitted that I had hit it right, I said to him—'yes you want me to go into hell and go through hell, with no prospect of getting any body in that church to give up their hell bent ways. They are trying to live life in the worldly way and are satisfied. I would like to aid any, who want help, but to go into a hell as a kind of visitor, with no hope of getting any body started out of it does not appeal to me.'"

Rev. Downing said that he was preaching from pulpits as occasions presented in connection with his work of spreading the truth against alcohol which was a kind of "clincher," he said, now that the nails of prohibition had been driven through. He said that plans were now on foot to make a moving picture display of what he and his company was playing in "Ten Nights in a Bar Room."

"When I can get that started, I hope to get right into the churches with it, for despite my criticism of Churchism, I am convinced that the church is the best of all earthly instrumentalities for bringing about the Kingdom of God."

"I thought this, in 1908, when I was converted to Christianity and gave up my theatrical calling to preach, at a money consideration about ten times less than I was used to making. I believe now, as I did then, that Christ's truth is the only thing that can save, and as long as I live I expect to preach it in one way or another."

age, but on the stage or in private conversation one does not realize that he has passed the meridian of life. Full of vitality and strength, pleasing and forceful this man with his long line of successes, world wide travel and unusual gifts is in full possession of faculties and powers, only given to the few.

The public is obligated to this man, not only for what he is unsparingly doing, but for his superb talents that it is permitted to enjoy. His audience left his presence Saturday night convinced that the only way to live was the way to prepare for the final end of life.

Robert Downing's message was sunk into his auditors Saturday night and will be of benefit.

In accordance with one of the deceased's last requests, the body will be brought here for burial under the soil of the city to which he had given much toward its development. He is survived by his wife.

Mr. Nelson was a member of the Junior Order American Mechanics and had aided largely in the growth of the order here.

Pacing the Responsibility. "When things are going good financially I notice men always say 'Fine!' when you ask them how they are," observes R. W. Moorhead of Sabatha. "But when finances look a little dark, ask how he is. The usual answer is 'Old woman's growing' or 'Children mighty poorly.'"—Kansas City Star.

Woman Discusses Rather Unusual Topic

"We women do rather neglect ourselves I guess," said a very busy woman lately, "and of course we have more ailments than the men who are so much more active than we." "Catching cold easily seems to be our worst affliction but I've learned how not to catch cold and how to keep in glowing good health."

"I've learned that it is simply a matter of keeping my liver active and working as it should, and to do that I find that the pleasantest and most trustworthy, liver regulator I can get is a non-sickening, non-gripping tablet of Rheubarb and refined Calomel called BARBACALS."

"All druggists sell BARBACALS under guarantee to refund your money if the tablets fail to give your absolute satisfaction. Doctors endorse and prescribe these tablets. A large box is only 35 cents. Mr. druggist says there is nothing better than BARBACALS."

Carrying a Ton a Mile for less than a Cent

Freight rates have played a very small part in the rising cost of living.

Other causes—the waste of war, under-production, credit inflation—have added dollars to the cost of the necessities of life, while freight charges have added only cents.

The average charge for hauling a ton of freight a mile is less than a cent.

A suit of clothing that sold for $30 before the war was carried 2,265 miles by rail from Chicago to Los Angeles for 16½ cents.

Now the freight charge is 22 cents and the suit sells for $50.

The cost of the suit has increased 20 dollars.

The freight on it has increased only 5½ cents.

Other transportation charges enter into the cost of the finished article—carrying the wool to the mills and the cloth to the tailors—but these other charges amount to but a few cents more.

The $10 pair of shoes that used to sell for $5 goes from the New England factory to the Florida dealer for a freight charge of 5½ cents—only one cent more than the pre-war rate.

Beef pays only two-thirds of a cent a pound freight from Chicago to New York.

American freight rates are the lowest in the world.

THOUGHT

REVELATION

Youth slipped off me like a garment,
Fell away and left me free—
(Billowing cloak of many colors, Youth was beautiful to see!)

Then slipped weight from off my shoulders—
(Strange how heavy dreams may be!)
And a trouble from my spirit,
Bruised and sore with honesty.

Then was torn the rainbow veiling
From my eyes that I might see,
Now I stand aghast, ecstatic,
Reaching for Reality.

—Louise Townsend Nicholl, in Contemporary Verse.

DISILLUSION

How weary Love has grown! See how she lies
Careless who sees her bosom, or whose lips
Steal her once guarded treasures—
how her eyes

Droop on her wan cheeks, while her tired hand grips
Half madly yet half languidly upon
The blossoms plucked that morning long ago

When she first wandered forth where meadows shone
With all the glad surprise and morning glow

Of youth. Come, let us gently pass her by,
For thus, asleep, she may forget her shame.

Her garments torn, and her lost ecstasy.
Yes, let her sleep who has outlived her fame.

And then, perchance, 'mid that uneasy rest
Death may creep up and clothe her naked breast.

—Richard Church, in the Athenaeum.

DO YOU REALIZE THAT

Malnutrition has cost the lives of more babies than any other factor?

Malnutrition causes the mental retardation of more school children than any other factor? Malnutrition is a precursor of tuberculosis, pellagra, scurvy, rickets, etc., and many greatly increased susceptibility toward all other diseases?

Malnutrition is unintelligent, is unnecessary, and is tremendously costly in money and life?

CLINIC TO BE HELD AT ALBANY HIGH SCHOOL
Wednesday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock, Miss Godbey, with several interested physicians, will hold a clinic at the Albany High School. Mothers whose children are underweight, are requested especially to attend, as an exhibit of proper foods for underweight children, and the proper portions to give to remedy the condition, will be shown with the assistance of Miss Harrison, Domestic Science Teacher. This exhibit has been recommended by the famous Dr. Hen, Dee Smith, Child Specialist, associated with Dr. Holt, whom we all know. Be sure to remember this clinic is for all interested people.

JUNIOR MUSIC STUDY CLUB
MRS. H. O. TROUP, HOSTESS
Mesdames H. O. Troup and E. E. Graves will be hostesses to the Junior Music Study club, the new organization will give the first program. This club has excited the loving interest of a number in the community. These girl members intend to continue the study of Music—this accomplishment adds much to the charm of young ladyhood. Just think, when your father did "court" you, your mother could go to the piano and play and sing for him the popular songs of her day, and to him, they equaled a Schumann-Heink performance.

Miss Emmie Marsh has returned to Elkmont, after visiting Miss Ruby Stewart.

BENEVOLENT SOCIETY
A meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent Society will be held Wednesday afternoon in the office of Judge Eyster in the Eyster building. All committees on new membership are requested to send in their reports by or before that time, for now is the season, when the needy must be looked after.

Mrs. Bradley Bibb of Belle Mina was in the cities Saturday, a delegate to the Y. W. C. A. convention, for relief work, held in the Carnegie Library.

Mrs. John Sheets is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Beard for a few weeks, prior to her return to Indiana.

Mrs. Charles Eyster and infant son, left Sunday for Selma to visit her sister, Mrs. Law Lamar.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Gunter are to return Tuesday night from New Orleans where Dr. Gunter went on professional business.

COTACO LITERARY CLUB
Mrs. E. R. Guy will entertain the Cotaco Literary club on Wednesday afternoon at the residence of her mother, Mrs. A. B. Lampkin.

Mrs. T. Z. Buchheit has been called to Birmingham by the serious illness of her father.

PERSONAL
Dr. J. L. Gunter is in New Orleans on professional business. Mrs. Gunter accompanied him. They will return on Tuesday night.

Lamar Eyster arrived last night from the University of Alabama, having completed the academic course which he was taking there.

W. R. Smith is steadily improving in health.

C. L. Orr, of Hartsville, was here today.

Inexpensive Fun.
Probably complaining about everything all the time does no real good, but it seems to be about the only way we can have any fun at all and still live within our means.—Ohio State Journal.

Descriptive Power.
"Now," asked a teacher, "who can tell me what an oyster is?" There was silence for a moment. Then little Billy raised his hand. "I know!" he triumphantly announced. "An oyster is a fish built like a nut!"

He's Lucky at That.
My youngest boy and I were at a restaurant and the waiter asked what we would have. The boy said: "Anything but ham and eggs; that's all I ever get at home."—Chicago Tribune.

Poor Advice.

"Don't marry the first girl you fall in love with; wait until you've seen the rest," advises the Montgomery Advertiser. Yes, and by the time you've seen the rest someone will have carried off the one you were in love with.

The Cautious Elephant.

Ancient chronicles tell us that the Romans sometimes tested their military bridges by sending an elephant out on them and then watching to see whether the cautious beast would cross. Even to this day the natives in India set great store by the elephant's caution.

LADY RUN-DOWN

And Hurt In Side Of Her Head. Is Benefited By The Use of ZIRON Iron Tonic.

After severe illness, overwork, worry, grief, accidents, etc., the greatest need of the weakened system is a tonic that gives quick, dependable strength. In such cases, try Ziron Iron Tonic.

Ziron is a pleasant medicine, having the strengthening effects of iron with other valuable building ingredients. Read what Mrs. Emma Manus, of Lascassas, Tenn., says about it:

"I was weak and run-down, not able to do my work. My trouble was all in the side of my head. I heard of Ziron and got a bottle, and I am glad to say it has done me more good than anything. Ziron is a splendid tonic."

Destroyer Named in Honor of Naval Hero

The following graphic account is taken from the current "Geographic" published in Washington, D. C., by the Geographic Society in an article on "The Removal of the North Sea Barrage" by Lieut. Commander Noel Davis, U. S. N., and the hero's death of Commander Frank King. His widow and a little daughter, named for her gallant father, are residents of this city. Mrs. King was reared here and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Adams. Commander King was reared by Mrs. R. E. Saunders of Albany.

"On the 12th day of July, two days after the 'Flamingo' was damaged, our most serious accident occurred. Again it was due to a mine fouling a kite. Before the trawler Richard Bulkeley could take any steps to remedy the situation, the mine exploded and her hull collapsed under the terrific concussion.

"Within seven minutes the vessel had gone down. The other vessels in the vicinity had cut their sweeps, rushing to her assistance, and succeeded in rescuing all except one officer and six men.

An Inspiring Act of Heroism
"A moment or two before the Bulkeley had disappeared from sight, one of those inspiring deeds occurred which live forever in our memories and glorify the noblest traditions of the service. A man, dazed by the shock of the explosion, struggled to the deck. Seeing that he had no life belt, Commander Frank R. King, U. S. N., took off his own, and, quickly buckling it about the man, helped him to get clear of the ship before she took her final plunge. A moment later the Bulkeley had disappeared, carrying down with her, in the vortex of swirling water, this gallant officer, who gave his life that another might live."

(To perpetuate his memory, the Secretary of the Navy, a few months later, named a new destroyer in honor of Commander King.)

Really Small Flats.

Verona was much impressed with her first night in a berth on a sleeper, and in relating some of the wonders of her trip, remarked: "Why, Aunt Emma, the flats were so small we couldn't all live together. Mamma and I slept in the first flat and daddy in the second flat."

DOCTORS FIND REMEDY FOR COLDS AND FLU

CALOTABS, THE NEW NAUSEA-LESS CALOMEL TABLETS. CUT SHORT COLDS AND MAY PREVENT FLU BY KEEPING LIVER ACTIVE.

Physicians have learned from experience, during the epidemic of influenza, that one of the most important factors in the prevention of flu and pneumonia is to keep the liver active so that the digestive organs may be in perfect working order and the system thereby enabled to throw off colds, check sore throats, and resist serious complications. For this purpose they have found that the new, nausealess calomel tablets called Calotabs, are far more effective even than the old style calomel, which was formerly the universal favorite, as Calotabs do not weaken the patient, nor interfere with the appetite and digestion.

At the first sign of a cold or sore throat, doctors recommend one Calotab at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, nor the slightest interference with your diet, pleasure, or work. Next morning you wake up feeling fine, your liver is active, and your appetite is keen for a good breakfast. For your protection Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. All druggists recommend and guarantee Calotabs. Your money back if you are not delighted with them.—Advertisement.

"ONLY ONE THING

"That's Dr. King's New Discovery for fifty years a cold-breaker"

NOTHING but sustained quality and unfailing effectiveness can arouse such enthusiasm. Nothing but sure relief from stubborn colds and crushing new ones, grippe, throat-tearing coughs, and croup could have made Dr. King's New Discovery the nationally popular and standard remedy it is today. Fifty years old and always reliable. Good for the whole family. A bottle in the medicine cabinet means a short-lived cold or cough. 60c. and $1.20. All druggists.

Regular Bowels Is Health

Bowels that move spasmodically—free one day and stubborn the next—should be healthfully regulated by Dr. King's New Life Pills. In this way you keep the impurities of waste matter from circulating through the system by cleansing the bowels thoroughly and promoting the proper flow of bile.

Mild, comfortable, yet always reliable, Dr. King's New Life Pills work with precision without the constipation results of violent purgatives. 25c. as usual at all druggists.

MODERN CREAMERIES ELIMINATING FARM CHURNS IN ALABAMA

By J. P. Guinierly, Dairy Specialist.
Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

Farm butter making is less profitable than selling cream. Few farmers who make butter realize anything for the time spent in its churning and marketing—in fact they usually pay heavy for the privilege of inflicting several extra hours of laborious work on their wives each day of the week.

Shipping cream to a creamery is the modern way of marketing farm butter. Most of the former work and all the marketing problems are thereby eliminated. After separation, the cream is simply accumulated, with proper care, in shipping cans and expressed to the creamery two or three times per week, depending upon the season of the year. Special rates, including the return of empty cans, make the cost of delivering the putter-fat little, if any more than a cent per pound.

Records are kept at the creamery of the weight of each can of cream and its percentage of butter-fat (determined by the Babcock Test). Payment is made promptly twice each month for all butter-fat received, the price based on the Chicago market. The creamery takes all the cream shipped and is glad to get it, because the demand for creamery butter can not be supplied. The whole State of Alabama does not produce enough such butter for the city of Birmingham, so there's no need of being afraid of glutting the market.

Many former butter makers are now selling their cream to Alabama creameries. They are all pleased with the change and say that never again will they be worried with buttermaking. Spiders are webbing their churns and they don't care if the hoops do fall off, for there is more money and less work in selling cream than in selling butter.

Butter-fat is butter without any salt, water, or curd in it. About 85 per cent of standard butter is butter-fat. At present butter-fat is worth 66½ cents per pound at any Alabama creamery. Since butter is 85 per cent fat, a pound contains 55½ (85 per cent of 66½) cents worth. Paper and cartons cost about 2 cents per pound for butter. Therefore a farmer must get 57½ cents for his butter and throw in the time consumed in making and marketing. In order not to actually lose money. Moreover he must get a 15 per cent overrun—which is almost impossible under farm churning conditions. Investigations have proved that few farm buttermakers turn out more pounds of butter than their milk or cream contained in fat. They often get an "underrun" instead of an overrun in churning. But assuming that they break even, they will lose the difference between the present price of butter-fat and what they get per pound every time a pound of butter is sold. Most farm butter sells for considerably less than 50 cents, and the loss is therefore more than 16½ cents per pound, plus the cost of making, packing and marketing.

Farmers with three or more cows should use a cream separator of standard make. A separator was never before as profitable because butter-fat has never been as high. A separator will increase the income from each cow between $10 and $20 per year. It gets practically all the fat out of milk, while spoon skimming and whole milk churning entails an average loss of 15 to 25 per cent.

Dairying is developing at a rapid rate in Alabama. The creamery and farm separator have made this new industry possible. It appeals to the average farmer because it insures a regular cash income each month, and an increasing soil fertility. No line of farming has proved as profitable or as adaptable to Alabama conditions, year in and year out.

A man with ten good cows, averaging two gallons each, per day, on his farm is sure of a cash income of between $60 and $75 semi-monthly. In addition, the skim milk is left at home for calves and pigs, and the "Cowano" for a hungry worn out soil.

TO AVOID THE "FLU"

First of All, Make Sure Your Blood is Red and Rich—in Fighting Trim

SAFETY IN VIGOROUS BLOOD

If You're Listless and Depressed Don't Delay a Minute—Get a Good Tonic.

If you get the influenza, see a doctor at once—but why get it? Isn't it worth while, instead, to take every precaution now, against getting it?

Probably the best and first thing to do is to make sure you are in good physical condition. During an epidemic, almost wherever you go you are exposed to influenza. As long as you are really well, the red corpuscles of your blood fight off and defeat disease germs. But when you are tired and run down, when you feel all right except that you haven't much energy or enthusiasm, your blood is tired out too, and you are an easy victim.

Pepto-Mangan has become famous as a builder of rich, vigorous blood. It helps you up when you are run down. I helps you avoid illness. Or, it helps you recover, if you realize your poor physical condition too late.

Physicians have been recommending Pepto-Mangan for years, in cases of anemia (bloodlessness). It is reliable, effective, and has a record of over twenty-five years success. Take no chances with a run-down condition. Get Pepto-Mangan today. It is good health insurance.

Pepto-Mangan is sold in liquid and tablet form. There is no difference in medical value. Take either kind you prefer. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's". The full name should be on the package.—Advertisement.

WINTON'S—ALBANY

New Spring Fashions Already?

Yes, Indeed, They're Beginning to Make Their Appearance Now at Winton's

The new spring modes which are now quietly stealing into our ready-to-wear and millinery departments are creating an unusual interest among many of our fashionably dressed women. To give a detailed account of the new features embodied in these styles would require a volume. Come in and see them. We will be pleased to have you.

Lovely New Dresses for Spring

The straight line silhouette with drapery on the hips—some in the form of pouches, some in clever folds, others in hoop effects—is especially good. And ruffles, ruffles especially good. And ruffles, ruffles, ruffles! Oh, what a variety! Elbow and three-quarter length sleeves predominate. Skirts are wider and shorter and many are adorned by accordin pleats.

The leading shades are navy, beige, conference blue and taupe.

Taffeta is to be one of the most favored silks for spring and fortunately a large majority of these are taffetas.

Smart Spring Suits

In these the short coat holds sway—Etons box effects, fitted coats with distended peplums and ripple tail models being much in evidence. Some are elaborately embroidered or silk braid trimmed, others are a mass of pin tucks. Narrow belts are featured extensively.

Beautiful vests of duvetyn, Queen Annie satin, 1920 Fan-ta-si and fancy tricolette. Many striking novelty backs. Quite a few are double-breasted styles.

Checks are to be extremely fashionable, as well as navy, black, covert and other shades.

The New SPRING COATS Are Beautiful

The newest coats are 32 to 40 inches long and feature particularly the short sports models. Spring, 1920, is to be a great season for sports materials and sports models.

The materials consist of polo cloths, imported camel hair, leather jersey, tweeds, mixtures, homespun, tricelines, covert cloths, etc.

All have narrow belts of leather or self-material. Some with narrow straps which buckle around the sleeves.

The New Millinery Modes Are Ready

Style features in the new spring hats are so plentiful and varied that practically every fancy, taste or whim will be quickly gratified.

One of the leading characteristics is the turned up brim developed in a myriad of novel ideas.

Brilliant colors and fabrics suggesting the Orient are especially prominent.

Individuality has been made the keynote in every creation that has been introduced this season.

To inspect our exhibition now will be a genuine treat for you.
